II. Five (5) Ships of Queen Hatshepsut Naval Expedition Arrive in Red Sea Harbor of Punt

(from Mariette, Auguste, Deir-elBahari, Leipzig 1877)

EXHIBIT NOTES:

- That the 5 boats of Queen Hatshepsut's naval expedition are in Punt is indicated by the Hieroglyphics of the left text, first column and that this is a Red Sea harbor is identified by the salt water marine animals specifically the squid and lobster. The arrival is peaceful and met by a smaller Puntian boat far left and thus expected being probably the first visit from Egypt/Kemit since the Hyksos conquered Lower Egypt/Kemit during the 16 th And 17 th Dynasties. Refer to Map 2 for the location of ancient Punt as modern day Eritrea on the Red Sea, and Map 7 for detail of the Eritrea area with the Nile River Valley.
